

"We are safe in the arms of Jesus,
no matter what seasons may come.
Have faith and HOLD ON!"

Elaine
NORWOOD

BILLBOARD GOSPEL ARTIST

In this moment in history, Gospel music has many great performers, more than ever before, and Elaine Norwood truly is amongst the very best. Her distinct alto voice can be recognized on her Billboard Top #20 Hit "He's Still Working On Me" or her highly acclaimed hits "I'm all that God say that I am", "God has a Way" and "My Rock", where she paints a story and takes the listener on a musical journey of inspiration.

Fledging from a rich musical family heritage and formal vocal training under the tutelage of Professor Winston Poe, she conveys her bountiful inheritance with great emotion and passion in every opportunity to minister through music. She has enjoyed recording and performing with some of the industry's most respected secular and gospel artists including Edwin Hawkins, Thomas Whitfield, Dorothy Norwood, Jerry Peters, Sanchez Harley, Leon Haywood, Nancy Wilson, Angela Winbush, The Isley Brothers, Mariah Carey and Stevie Wonder.

Elaine's myriad of talents extends past music into all of the arts. She studied violin and piano, produced a multitude of plays, most notably she headlined her performance on the "Today Show" and has appeared as a vocalist on the American Music Awards, The Arsenio Hall Show, Good Morning America, BET and The Easter Seals Telethon and The Gospel of Music with Jeff Majors and The Dorinda Clark Show.

Ms. Norwood's illustrious career in both secular and gospel music serves as the foundation for her Ministry. She is one who visibly moves you with her soulful outpouring of music. As she reaches in and emotes a multitude of sentiment, you will instantly be encouraged & uplifted in hope.
